

BLUEGRASS ON THE BAYOU

April 15, 2018 The Madison, Broussard, 4-7 PM

Friends of the Humanities has a 28-year history of providing grants and other financial support in excess of $550,000 to the University of Louisiana Lafayette Humanities programs. To enable us to continue this support, The Friends invite you to partner with us in our Bluegrass on the Bayou fundraiser on Sunday April 15, 2018, from 4-7 p.m. at the Madison in Broussard, which includes music, food and beverages, and a silent auction. A good time!

Friends of the Humanities works to provide and strengthen resources for the Humanities programs in the Colleges of the Arts and Liberal Arts. Humanities comprise almost 50% of the core requirements for all ULL students including those in engineering, business and technology. As Dean Jordan Kellman states, "Humanities education offers the best preparation for personal and professional success in a complex and rapidly changing world."

Fundraiser proceeds will provide grants for instructional materials and equipment, new course development, varied faculty support, and course enhancements. The need for financial support is ever increasing due to long-term decreased state funding.

In a message shared by Dr. Darrell Bourque, "The Humanities matter. They are powerful; they change us; they expand us; they make us feel; and the next thing you know, you're happy!"

Partner with us to help fulfill the essential needs of ULL Humanities students and professors. Select one of the sponsorship levels below and complete the enclosed form which details the benefits of each level.
