Friends of the Humanities Fundraising afternoon at the Opera:

Sunday, November 6, 3pm, on UL's campus

- Puccini's comic one-act opera, Gianni Schicchi, will be presented by the UL Lafayette Opera Theater and the Acadiana Symphony Orchestra. One of the lead roles will be sung by Victoria, granddaughter of retired UL Provost, Dr. Steve Landry. The opera is based on an early 20th century libretto and an incident in Dante's Divine Comedy.
- The opera will last 67 minutes.

Cost

Deadline for reservations for the opera is Friday, October 28th. Cancellations will become contributions.

Cut here and mail to the Friends, along with your check: P.O. Box 53581, Lafayette, LA 70505

^^^